Call for Chapters

Political Communication in the Nordic Countries

Political communication in the Nordic countries is an anthology about the relationship between political communication and democracy in the Nordic countries to be published by Nordicom in late 2007. The anthology is to be edited by Jesper Strömbäck Mittuniversitet (Sweden), Toril Aalberg, Norges teknisk-naturvitenskapelige universitet (Norway) & Mark Ørsten, Roskilde University (Denmark).

The anthology consists of two parts. The first part will describe the political communications systems in the Nordic countries; the second part is concerned with case studies in Nordic political communication.

Researchers within the area of Nordic political communication are hereby invited to send in a chapter proposition (abstract) to the second part of the book; case studies in Nordic political communication. The abstract should be approximately 400-500 words and explain the theoretical focus, the data used and core empirical results of the case study. The complete chapter should be no longer than 7000 words.

Deadline for chapter proposition (abstract) is May 31, 2006.

Deadline for accepted chapters is May 7, 2007

Kind regards
